Description

A cosy 3 bedroom holiday home located right in the heart of the historic and picturesque village of Ramelton in North West Donegal. The holiday home can comfortably accommodate 6 people and has everything you need for a self catering holiday - whatever your length of stay. The holiday home is located near the bridge that crosses the river Lennon in the village of Ramelton. Ramelton itself is one of Irelands heritage towns and still retains much of its original Georgian character. The village has lots to offer - the recently restored Townhall is now a popular venue for concerts and plays.
