Description

Situated in the Cara Bay area of Culdaff; Cara Cottage is only a five minute walk from the well known McGrory's Pub & Restaurant in the centre of Culdaff. The Beach and Bunagee Pier are a fifteen minute walk or about one mile. The house itself is compact in design yet deceptively spacious inside, having five bedrooms, a large kitchen and dining area, lounge, utility room, and an outside patio area.

The village is set on the banks of the Culdaff River which is crossed by two stone bridges that mark the location of ancient fords that gave Culdaff its name. In Gaelic, Culdaff is "Cul da Ath", or corner of the two fords
