Description

A very neat and clean traditional style holiday home, with much of the original features and furnishings still intact. Modern plumbing, kitchen and oil fired central heating add towards making it a very comfortable "home from home". Only half a mile from the golf club. Superb views over the southern end of Lough Swilly. Originally a farm house, it retains much of its original character and charm, and has a warm friendly aura about it. The home is well kept and maintained by the owner, who lives close by.
