Description

An established three bedroom cottage to sleep six, in the centre of the village of Malin Head. The nearby Seaview Tavern and the Crossroads Inn are two local establishments where one can enjoy a meal or a drink. Irelands most northerly pub, which is called Farren's Bar, lies just east of the cottage; - a most convenient situation for thirsty hill walkers returning from a long coastal trek, or weary tourists returning from an enjoyable days sightseeing on the 'Inishowen 100'.
