Description

A cottage in the traditional 'bungalow' style, set on an elevated height, the views of the surrounding countryside are simply spectacular, with Trawbreaga Bay, Carndonagh, Malin and the hills of the Inishowen Peninsula all visible. A great base from which to tour the surrounding area, especially the Inishowen Peninsula, and further afield.

In the summer months, car ferries from Buncrana across Lough Swilly to Rathmullan and western Donegal, and from Greencastle across Lough Foyle to Magilligan Point and Northern Ireland; allow the tourist to easily drive right across the whole Northern part of Ireland.
