Description

This single storey cottage was originally a thatched property and has been totally restored to be a very picturesque comfortable holiday cottage. Central heating and modern amenities have been added to bring the cottage into the 21st century. Ned's cottage offer a warmth and charm that will win over any visitor.

This home is set in the amazing rural location of Fanad. The area is totally unspoilt and is set beneath rolling hills by the beach. The house is one third of a mile from the lighthouse pub and a mile from the lighthouse. The stunning and safe sandy beaches offer surfing, fishing and many more activities for all the family.
