Description

The house gets its name from the Irish for "against the wind". It is a large, spacious and comfortable five bedroom dwelling that can sleep up to ten; - making it suitable for larger families or groups. Three of the five bedrooms each have an en-suite, and there is a main bathroom and a separate toilet off the utility room.

The house is well appointed with a fully fitted kitchen, a separate dining room, utility room, lounge, and a large landing area upstairs that has been turned into a gaming area with a pool table, a large, flat, wall-mounted TV, dart board, bar etc.
