Description

Two superb holiday cottages located in beautiful countryside outside Glen village in North Donegal. Peter's House is a 400 year old cottage sympathetically renovated and refurbished to 21st century standards of luxury and comfort. Harry's House is a new cottage built with natural local stone. It has been tastefully built in a traditional style and the end result is a holiday home that oozes charm and character. Each cottage provides superior self catering accommodation for up to six people.
