Description

A development of eight holiday cottages, situated in a most scenic area of Donegal's coastline in the seaside village of Maghery 6km from Dungloe, a town known internationally for its "Mary from Dungloe" festival. The cottages are situated in a quiet peaceful setting, safe for children with sandy beach only 450 metres away. Shop and pub 280 metres.

The area has interests for everyone, quiet walks along Croaghey Head, above the cliffs, sea caves and Martello Tower. You may stroll along to the ancient ruins of St. Crone's Church at Tearmon. Visit the fishing villages of Burtonport and Bunbeg, and take a boat trip to Arranmore and Tory islands. Visit Glenveagh National Park, and experience its peace and tranquillity among the Derryveagh mountains. Visit the Dunlewey lakeside centre and experience life as it was at the turn of the century.
