Description

A superb modern holiday home located in a well-designed new development on the outskirts of Ardara Town. The river, which runs behind the house is noted for its salmon. Ardara is one of the most attractive towns in Donegal and is set in a wide valley where the Owentocher River enters Loughros More Bay. This locality is famous for its Donegal tweeds and woollen goods. Ardara itself is centrally located base to explore the beautiful South West Donegal region - a region with superb golf links, scenic drives and blue flag beaches.
