Description

This spacious bungalow style holiday cottage is located in a tranquil rural area, close to Ireland's most northerly point, Malin Head. There is plenty of room to accommodate up to nine - ideal for the large family group. Rossmore is a short five minute walk from the local beach. It's not too far from Portaleen Pier and is located between the villages of Malin and Culdaff.

Enjoy long walks, beautiful open spaces and scenery; fishing and sightseeing around the beautiful Inishowen Peninsula. Glengad is a traditional fishing village located some 10 miles from Ireland's most northerly point, Malin Head. This whole area and its people have a close affinity with the sea - the rugged landscape looks out over the North Atlantic Ocean
