Description

The cottage is one in a cluster of five similar dwellings, situated on a slight elevation just east of the R257 through Derrybeg, and about 2km inland, but within view of the coast. It is a lovely, modern four bedroom cottage, able to sleep seven, with a fully fitted kitchen, dining room, lounge, bathroom, en-suite, separate downstairs toilet, a landing area and an entrance hall. Comfort is ensured with full insulation, double glazed windows and oil fired central heating. Conveniently situated within walking distance of the main road and shops through Derrybeg, the cottage lies in a quiet and peaceful location, and is an ideal base from which to tour the North West.
