Description

The Thatch is a charming traditional cottage located close to the heritage town of Ramelton and offering all modern facilities to ensure you have a carefree stay in this special part of Donegal, Ireland. The cottage is set amid rolling countryside and the many laneways in the immediate area are ideal for walkers. Staying at the cottage, you also have access to private tennis courts.

The grounds surrounding the cottage are beautifully maintained and the fact that many visitors return year after year is testament to the warmth of the welcome they receive. The large living room in the cottage has an open fireplace, perfect for relaxing around after a day spent exploring the surrounding countryside or a game of golf at one of the many links courses in the area.
