Description

The cottage is situated just 3km outside the town of Buncrana near the eastern shore of Lough Swilly. There are four bedrooms to sleep up to eight, a lounge, dining room, kitchen, utility room, main bathroom, an en-suite and a separate toilet off the utility room. There is also a basement 'games' room. Outbuildings include a garage, garden shed, and a small green house.

The home is well established and comfortably furnished throughout, has oil fired central heating, double glazing, a gas-fired fireplace in the lounge, and an open fireplace in the dining room. The garden is landscaped, and mature with tall perimeter hedges to provide seclusion and privacy.
